

The 2010 UNITED STATES AMATEUR DISC GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP
presented by DISCRAFT

Congratulations, based on your play at a qualifying tournament you are hereby invited to compete in The PDGA 2010 United States Amateur Disc Golf Championship. The tournament team welcomes you to the Toboggan championship course at Kensington Metropark in Milford, Michigan and wishes you fortune in your quest of becoming the next United States Amateur Disc Golf Champion.

In addition to this cover letter, please find enclosed in your invitation package:

- Player application form
- A basic schedule of tournament events
- Other information, including maps, mandated dress code info and locations of events are available for download at www.amnationals.com.

Course

The tournament will take place on the Toboggan championship course in Kensington Metropark, Milford, Michigan. The park is located 20 miles northwest of Detroit, 50 miles east of Lansing, on I-96 at the Milford Road exit. Play will be one round each of 3 days with scheduled tee times.

Registration

The field for this event is limited to 144 players. Any unfilled spots will be opened up to “Week of Qualifying”. Your application MUST be received BY June 4th 2010 to be considered for the pool of spots for qualified players. As registrations are accepted the names will be posted on the tournament website www.amnationals.com and www.pdga.com.

To secure your place, please complete and mail in your registration form and entry fee to the USADGC Office in Fenton, MI as soon as possible. Be sure to make your check payable to DISCRAFT payable in US funds. If you would like to register and pay online but still mail in your registration you may do so at www.amnationals.com and click on the “Registration” button.

Refunds will be given until June 4th, after that no refunds will be issued. If for some reason an application is denied (such as loss of amateur status) the application fee will be refunded, otherwise the application fee will be posted as your entrance fee.

Ratings

Top 5 Rated (at least 8 rated rounds, minimum 915 rating for MA1) amateur players from each U.S. State that have not already qualified. The ratings will be the current ratings as of March 23, 2010.

Week of Qualifying

5 spots have been reserved, along with any unfilled positions out of the 144 as of 6/4/10, for “Week of Qualifying”. The tournament staff will allow players that have not already qualified to pay $20/round to try and shoot the “Hot Rounds”. We will accept registrations (with the associated fee) from the players who shoot the hottest rounds during Tuesday thru Wednesday (6/8-6/9) prior to the event. Bring your caddy!

Each separate round will need to be paid for but there is no limit on the number of attempts you make. “Week of Qualifying” rules are subject to change without notice.

Awards Ceremony

The ceremony will be held on Sunday afternoon following the final round. All competitors are required to stay for the awards to receive any prizes.

Questions

Please direct inquiries to the tournament office at office@amnationals.com or 1-810-908-7464. If you would like to know if your entry has been received, please check the event website for the latest list of confirmed entries. To try and relive some of the administrative overhead please check www.amnationals.com, to see if the information is already available on line.

Thank you and good luck with the slopes of The Toboggan!
